

Engineering & Construction

"Automate your Experience"

ENGINEERING & CONSTRUCTION INDUSTRY

Engineering & Construction industry faces major challenges in their day to day operations. Starting from project documentations to projects closures there are several processes which is time consuming and involves a hefty manual intervention and efforts to complete the same.

CHALLENGE

EC&O industry has several challenges such as project team reading pages of contract terms and conditions to convert into a meaning full data.

Customer inquiries consist of thousands of line items which needs to be converted to Sales quotations and orders.

Vendor sourcing is a major challenge in this industry due to the number of project related products which the industry deals with

SOLUTION

Robotic process automation (RPA) from Atominos Consulting can save thousands of manual hours mostly in its project bidding by automating the contract extraction. It can also help in finance areas by automating they daily payables and receivables transaction. The RPA process can eliminate the manual efforts in the customer order fulfillment. The vendor quotation comparison process can seamlessly be automated using the RPA solutions which will save time and cost to the companies.

ESTIMATED BENEFITS

$45k

Monthly Cost Savings

2000<sub>hrs</sub>

Manhours saved per month

10k+

Average documents per month

Processes identified

- Contract Extraction
- Order Fulfillment
- Vendor Quotation Comparison
- Accounts Payables
- Vendor Invoice Recon

Industry

Engineering & Construction (ECO)

"Atominos Consulting's RPA solutions can automate the processes resulting in savings of time and cost.

RPA deployment also helps companies to save FTEs and allocate them in more valuable areas which in turn will result in revenue generation to the organizations.